The election to be held by the Revolntionists is fixed for next Tuesday. An effort will be made to give Reedera much larger number of votes than have been given to Gen. The pro-slavery men, satisfied that they are right, and that they are sustained by the law, will interpose no obstacle to the farce which Governor Reeder and his party have elected to play out, and if there should be any disturbance on Tuesday next it will be because the Abolitionists provoke it.

Wash. Union, 7th inst. From the Washington Union, 7th inst. The Utter Rout of Know-Nothingism

Since our last issuo, advices by mail as well as by telegraph, remove all doubt as to the character of the result in Georgia. In a State where Know-Nothingism calculated largely upon success, and where its leaders hoped to entrap the unwary by concealing the most odious features of the order, bitter and overwhelming has been the disappointment, and Georgia proudly and exultingly takes her stand by her sister States of the South, after having furnished triumphant evidence of her loyalty to the Constitution, her fidelity to the Uni ples of the Democratic party.

The result may be summed up in a few words.

Johnson (Democrat) has been re-elected Governor by about 4,000 majority—a gain of 2,500 since the clection in 1859.

The delegation in the next Congress will stand six Democrats and anti-Know-Nothings to two Know-Nothings.

In both branches of the State Logislature, the control of the state of the election in 1859.

In announcing this signal defeat of Know-Nothunmistakable brand of the popular condemnation.
The rebuke is signal, emphatic, and we believe final. Georgia has recorded her voice in charac-

Misrepresentations and distortions of facts in regard to the management distortions of facts in regard to the management of the State railroad were plentifully circulated in pamphlets and handbills, and votes were influenced thereby. But with all these drawbacks the sentiment of Georgia has been spoken with crushing effect against Know-Nothingism."

We find in the St. Louis Republican, of the Sth inst., the following:

Speech of Ex-Gov. Brown of Tennessee.

Fellow-citizens, there remains one other subject to which I invoke your most serious attention. It is the obvious tendency—nay, certainly—that Know-Nothingism can bring nothing but danger and disaster upon the southern States. Know-Nothingism was started in the North, and had no other element to compose it but Whigs and Abolitionists. It took its rise in the midst of the fire and smoke and suffication of the wildest and most furious fanaticism against you and your property that the world ever saw—a fanaticism that toro churches assunder. It took captive every northern churches assunder. It took captive every northern churches assunder. Speech of Ex-Gov. Brown of Tennessee. right had you, then, with this warning sounding is churches asunder. It took captive every northern Legislature, sent to the Senate some of the most deadly enemies the South ever had. In the fury of the storm the northern Democracy who had saved you in the annexation of Texas—saved you anathemas on the Democrats (the only friends you have left in the world), and on Franklin Pierce (whose every action has been true as steel to our Southern rights, whatever you may think of his administration in other respects), then, I repeat, you could have returned like patriots, warning your friends and kindred, and countrymen of the county is a super about to war argingt such other no longer about. onth, to war against each other no longer about of Freeseilism, Whigism, and Abolitionism, as to give but little promise of that effectual aid in the future which had so often saved us in the conflicts

South, to war against each other no longer about the ancient points of party difference; but, like a band of suffering brethren, to be of one heart and one mind in the great crisis which was approaching. But, instead, of exhibiting a noble and patriotic spectacle like that, what the we behold? You come home, flourishing a platform which was never assend, either by States or according to the your passed, either by States or according to the votes of the electoral college, and vainly—I will not say falsely—pretending that you have obtained guarantees from the North which you have not obtained, for they were voted down by a tie vote in your presence—guarantees that our slave property shall be protected in the Territories, as well as in the States—that it shall not be abolished in the district of Columbia—that the fugitive-slave law shall never be repeated, and that no attempt shall be made to exclude Kansas or any other State from admission into the Union because they may most questionable, you are seeking to hold your oath-bound legions together, and to obtain a triumph over the only party now he existence that is either willing or able to save the South. presidential, congressional, and State elections may be fought. What reception did they receive at Philadelphia? When they asked of that compound and motley mixture, northern Whigs, Freesoilers, and Abolitionists to take thom in as partners, they were instantly rejected. When they presented their platform, full as it was of apology, and barren as it was of any snre guarantee to the came confident that in a few years at most the North could elect the President and a majority of both houses of Congress, not only without any aid, but even in despite of all the power of the South, Whigs and Democrats united. But what did the Whigs do after the dissolution with their northern allies? Many of them, to their honor be it spoken—many of their wisest statesmen and particles, such as Gholson, of Virginia, and Toombs and Stephens, of Georgia, refusing to go into this Know-Nothing scheme, boldly arowed that there were no materials outside of the Democratic party with which a coalition could be formed, that less oath, and, come what may, it must be redeem ed! Say not that I color this picture too darkly that party was the soundest and safest one on all the questions in which the South was vitally in-terested, and that they were prepared and resolved to co-operate with them on these great questions, and thereby avert the calamities impending over Say not that, in the event of a nominati so lated to all that is near and dear to the South, the Know-Nothing leaders would call upon their followers to disband and renounce the horrid and internal eath they have taken. Be not deceived. THURSDAY, - - OCTOBER 11, 1855.

The editor of the Louisville Journal repeats, for the thousandth time, that his party prescribes no man on account of his religious opinions. He and his party swear they will never vote for a Catholic, or put him in any office or place. They make no exception; it is sufficient that the aspirant is a Catholic, and he is proscribed It requires a hard face to deny, in the face of this oath, that the profane Order proscribe none on account of their religion. The dodge is, that the Catholie Church is a political institution, and its members subjects of a foreign prince, to whom they owe allegiance; and they are proscribed because of this allegiance. It is easy to assume a charge and make it the excuse for proscription; so persecutors have acted in every age of the world. It is rather late in the nineteenth century to set up such a plea for such a practice. Men have observed the practice before and can't be deceived. For hundreds of years England proscribed Catholics from all offices. She had precisely the same excuse that the Know-Nothings have now, and could urge it much more plansibly. Her practice perished under the increasing light of the age, and amidst the applause of liberal men in all countries, but especially in this.

It is for a party of demagogues in the United States to exhume an exploded error and make a merit of it. It is paying too much respect to them it argue the point. It has been discussed and settled long ago, and it is raised now to be voted down hy a free people. The demagogues who raised this question had but one object, and that was office. They wished to rule America. They are in favor of giving office to Catholics over all others where Catholics have votes to give, as in Louisiana.

We shall soon hear no more of the great principles of the American party. They will not pay, and will therefore perish.

Know-Nothing Rascality.

The Know-Nothing organs announced in staring capitals that four hundred stand of arms had been sent, boxed up, to the depot at Cincinnati, and that a patriotic Know-Nothing, one Gen. Sergeant, had lighted upon these boxes of treason, and taken them in keeping; thus preventing the bloody Irish and Dutch from getting hold of these implements of death, sent for their use, no doubt, by Medill, the Democratic Governor. The story was very horrible, and the organ of the ruffians expected to get up a mob hy it, and lie it through. But Know-Nothing lies had become too stale ; the public din n't believe much about the story, and Gov. Medill soon informed them that he had sent no arms to Cincinnati. It was plainly, then, a Know-Nothing trick.

Where did these arms come from, and how did Gen. Sergeant light upon such prey at so opportune a moment? The Quartermaster General at Columbus is a Know-Nothing; so is Sergeant. They know all about it.

The affair is one of the smallest and shallowest of tricks, and all concerned will meet with public contempt. Let the Know-Nothings explain to the rest of mankind where the arms came from, and what was going to be done with them.

We give on our first page this morning the concluding part of the speech of ex-Gov. A. V. Brown, delivered at Gallatin, Tenn., on the 4th of July last. It is an eloquent and powerful appeal to national men of all parties, and particularly of the men of the South and West and Northwest. again, until its every word and thought is indellibly impressed upon his memory. And after reading it, let them hand it to their Know-Nothing friends and neighbors whe love their country more than examine and consider both sides of questions. There are many such among the Know-Nothings honest and patriotic men, who have been deceived by their leaders, or who, for want of careful and sober thought, have mistaken the true interest of the country. Let all such, we say, be politely requested to read and ponder the remarks of ex-Gov. Brown, who is an able and experienced statesman, and a man devoted to the equal rights of the States and to the interest of the people of the South, in common with those of the whole Union. There are many others of our opponents, however, to whom it is worse than idle to address a solitary Know-Nothings, and are determined to remain Know-Nothings and Care-Nothings so far as the dearest interests of their country are concerned. Their highest aim is the success of their party in a "wild hunt" for office and power. They hate the Democracy with perfect hatred, not because they are Democrats, but because they have been suocessful in the party struggles of the country. They hate foreigners and Catholics, not because they are foreigners and Catholics, but because they are mostly Democratic in their affiliations. To defeat the Democracy they would pull down the pillars of the Constitution and break up the Union They are nearly as inveterate in their hatred of and self-sacrificing in their opposition to, the Democratic party, as was the editor in Booneville, Mo. who said, in 1840, he would "rather be dead and damned" than to see the Democratic nominee for the Presidency elected. With such men it is use less for a Democrat to reason. But to the soher minded of our opponents in the South we com

No War in Town Yesterday!

GENTLE PEACE PREVAILING!

We are most happy to announce to anxious friends ahroad that the election in this city, yesterday, passed in peace. The wise arrangements of having the judges and clerks of election in the various Wards, selected beforehand, with a view to give everybody a fair chance, and the excellent stroke of policy in closing the coffee houses, insured the peace of the city, in spite of the insendiary publications of infamously reckless prints at home, and in basely interested localities at a distance, and the inflammatory doings of unserupulous partisans, who would gladly see the city burn up, if hy its light they could find their way along a crooked path to the consummation of a pitiful ambition. The editor of the Louisville Journal and his echoes here, may take notice that Journal and his echoes here, may take notice that Cincinnati has not marked the second Tuesday of Octoher with blood, to eclipse in ghastliness the "bloody Monday" of Louisville. Yesterday, the heavens were most heautifully clear and serene and our streets did not mock their henignity.

A new daily paper has just been commenced at Madison, Indiana, called the Daily Democrat. It is conducted hy Mr. J. Jackson. We have not yet seen a number of it.

exceptions, were closed. The principal restaurants were rigid in their obedience to the Mayor's request, refusing to sell liquor to any oue, or to give it away on any pretense. There was some liquor—from private bottles and lawless doggeries—afloat, however, and a few drunken fellows made unavailing efforts to get up rowdy demonstrations and in some of the Wards corporal's guards of insignificant individuals insisted upon being black-guards, but the general complexion of affairs was remarkably sober, peaceful and decorous. Voters. with hit hore and there an exception, exchanged opinions freely and decently. Order reigns in Cincinnati—not that order which is enforced by the soldiers' bayonet, or the soliceman's hludgeon —hut that which is the effect of the solemn will of a people enlightened and self governing.

GENERAL QUIETCDE.—Never before have we seen such general peace, good order and quietnde on an election day, as prevailed throughout our city yesterday. There were no load beiterous brawling no angrey collicated the control of fight, or half a dozen intoxicated persons. There was no loud, boisterous hrawling, no angry collisions, no bitter recriminations. An election thus peaceful and orderly was highly oreditable to our citizens, and occurring as it did, when our citizens were deeply interested in the result of the political contest, it speaks highly of their regard for freedom of speech, and respect for the integrity of the elective franchise. Many persons were foarful that there would be disgraceful scenes of riot and hloodshed, but thank God, such forebodings were not realized.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE Ky. Democratic State Convention.

LEXINGTON, Kr., Oct. 5, 1855.

The Democracy assembled on the lawn, in front of Morrison College, where stands had been erected, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The assemblage, which, after the arrival of the morning trains and other public conveyances, amounted to four or five thousand people, was called to order by Hon. J. (Breckinridge, on whose motion ex-Governor L. W. Powell was appointed President of the Con vention.

Gov. Powell took the stand, and in an exceedingly neat and pertinent address signified his acceptance of the post, and entered upon the discharge of its duties.

On motion of Hon. J. C. Breckinridge, B. B.

Thos. L. Bransford, Chas. Rochester, Jonathan
Davis, Col. De Jarnett, Levi Tyler, Joshua Speed,
Thos. J. Frazier, S. J. Lusk, Thos. Garrard, Lewis

Sanders, A. G. Talbott.
On motion of J. II. Harney, a committee On motion of J. II. Harney, a committee of twelve were appointed to report an address and resolutions, declarative of the principles and aims of the democratic party, for the consideration of the Convention. The following named gentlemen were appointed to constitute the en to-wit: J. H. Harney, Dr. N. Gaither, J. C. Breck-inridge, G. A. Caldwell, F. Rolock, T. C. McCreery J. C. Mason, C. A. Wickliffe, R. R. Revil, W. B. Thompson, R. W. Woolley, John Cardwell.

In order to save time, it was resolved to dispense with the formality of making out a complete list of delegates to the Convention; but it was ascertained, and the Secretary is happy to state the fact, of his own knowledge, delegates were pres-ent from nearly every county in the State. The extremest points of the State were represented; there being delegates from Fulton, at Mill's Point on the west; and from Breathitt, which joins the Virginia line on the east.

After the Committee had retired, the President of the Convention introduced Hon. Stephen A. Donglas, Senator from Illinois, who proceeded to address the Convention in a speech of about three hours' duration. The Hon. goutleman stated that it should be his purpose to show to the Kentuckians present, that Democracy in the North and in the South was composed of one and the same sort of principles; and he would talk here, in a slave State, just as he would do at home, among his own as many as wish to go are admirable, and the fare immediate fellow-citizens of Illinois. Mr. Douglas then proceeded to make one of the most powerful, massive, compact, and able constitutional arguments upon the political topics of the day-parti ularly touching the slavery question — that has ever been uttered by an American statesman. He was listened to by the vast concourse present with the most marked and profound attention, notwith-standing the weather was somewhat inclement and the people had to stand a considerable portion of the time, exposed to a slight rain. Never have we seen more devoted attention, and never have we seen an audience more highly delighted. Mr.
Douglas fully sustained his well carned and great reputation as a statesman and an orator.

After Mr. Douglas had concluded, the conven tion adjourned to enable the people to partake of a bountiful repast, which was prepared in the colr dinner, and in consequence of the incle ency of the day, the convention assembled in the upper market-house, where suitable stands had een erected. The Committee on Address and Resolutions made their report. The resolutions were read and adopted by a unaninous vote.

The reading of the address was dispensed with for the present, to enable the poople to hear Hon. Geo. E. Pugh, U. S. Senator from Ohio, who was present hy invitation of the Committee.

Gov. Powell then introduced Mr. Pugh, whe made a most happy and felicitous speech. the great political topics he showed himself to be a sound, practical statesman, of national sentiments, and wholly destitute of any of those isms which so distract and disturb the country. He treated the slavery question just as the Constitution treats t: and such was the manner, he declared to us, in had introduced into Congress and so ahly advoca-ted and sustained. Mr. Pugh proved himself to he

Nothing could be more happy or admirable than the manner in which he put many of his points; and they told with thrilling effect upon his charmed audience. He was able, amusing, cloquent, and persuasive; and while he colighted by the beautiful play of his fancy, he also instructed by the cogency of his reasoning. He was the last of the distinguished strangers present; and it may with truth he said, that seldom have three such speeches, so masterly and so eloquant, been delivered in one day, to a like audience.

He has done as thousands of the flower and chivalry of the old Whig party have lone and will do. It is hoped that Col. Prestor will write out a sketch of his elequent remarks; and in this hope we omit to his elequent remarks; and in this hope we omit to make any further comment upon his able speech. He was followed by Hon. A. G. Talbott, memher of Congress elect from the Danville District, who, like Col. Prestor, was, until lately, a Whig; but who now, from the same patriotic motives, finds himself compelled, if he would faithfully serve his country, to joir the Democratic party. The speeches of both these gentlemen were received with very marked atention by the audience, and they were frequently cheered in the course of their elequent remarks.

When Mr. Talbot had concluded, the Convention adjourned until after supper.

The Convention p-assembled at 7½ o'clock most interesting eremony took place, after the convention had ben called to order. This was the presentation of a heau tiful flag, provided hy the Democracy of ohnson county. It was designed as atribute to be Democracy Louisville for the Democracy of Jenson, in consideration of the Hact that they had given the largest majority, in proporion to numbers, ofany connty in the State, at he late election. Wm. P. Jarin the State, at he late election. Win. F. Jarvis, Esq., of Luisville, presented the banner, accompanying the ceremony with an address at once appropriate chaste, and elequent. Col. Rice, on behalf of the Democracy of Johnson, received the banner and esponded in a most happy manner to the remaks of Mr. Jarvis. The banner was heliefed when the procker's stand and attractwas hoisted upa the speaker's stand and attracted the attentiorand received the admiration of the whole vast cowd. The Agricultural Fair-Se cond Day. As fine a day as ever dawned upon the earth was yesterday, and thousands of our citizens and neighbors crowded to the fair grounds hy every possible mode of conveyance. Carriage after carriage, buggy, hack and rockaway kept the pike in one continued'cloud of dust, while train after train, every half hour, carried out in the forenoon its hundreds. The crowd in attendance was certainly as large as on the second day of last year, and all were delighted. The vast amphitheatre was well-nigh filled with the beauty and fashion of Louisville and vicinity. During the exhibition of the horses a good deal of enthusiasm was manifested by the crowd, especially when the several best animals received their colors. There were some fine horses, with noble shapes, elegant movements and full of spir-The close of the day was the most noticeable portion of it. Mr. Womack, proprietor of the HONOR TO LIEUT. MAURY .- We learn that the Russian Minister yosterday waited on Lieutenant Maury, at the National Observatory, to deliver, hy command of his Government, an autograph letter from the Grand Duke Constantine, who, it will he remembered, is the Commander-in-Chief of the Russian Navy. This letter is written in French, but, under the helief that many of our readers will derive as much pleasure from its perusal as we have done we give publisher to remembe in

we have done, we give publicity to a translation Sr. Peterseurg, Dec. 10, (22), 1854. To LIEUT. MAURY: Sir-It is now a long time since the eminent scientific works, for which navi-gators of every nation are indebted to your zeal and your talents, attracted my attention and your talents, attracted my attention. Recently again the Imperial Delegates to the Brussels Conference have rendered me a complete report, in which I have taken the most lively interest. I should rejoice, sir, to present you with a testimonial of my esteem; but, knowing the laws of your country, which do not permit you to accept anything from Foreign Princes, I must confine myself to the expression of my sentiments. They are as exalted as your own merits: and in my offi-

Receive, sir, the assurances of my and esteem,

This is a high but deserved compliment to Lieutenant Maury, who, we feel convinced, has heen relieved from active duty in the Navy that he may be permanently retained in his present extional Observatory, where his services in the cause science and nautical improvement will he much more important and valuable to the country and the world than they would brobably prove, however eminent they might be in any other position.

A BLUE AND WHITE Double Quick Work Sky Light, inst introduced by BOESBERG, enables him to take Daguerreolypes in a few seconds and for the greatly reduced price of 50 cents and upwards. It is also one of the best lights ever known to produce correct likenesses, either of children or adults. The red hair and blue eyes have heretofore been difficult to take; but it is no longer any trouble to give them the real artistic disposition of light and shade. The new Sky Light operates as wellin cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the cloudy as in clear weather, and gives the likeness the cloud as the clear weather, and gives the likeness the cloud around Louisville. Ma. Solomons-Dear Sir: I called upon you at your office, on Fourth street, in December last, and told you hat I had purchased several pair of Spectacles at different stores, but had never obtained any that did not causegreat pain and attigue to the eyes, but am happy to state that the pair I purchased of you suit beyond my my sight improve so much since I have used them, that I cannot sit down and read small print without them. Wishing you every sucess your great enterprise de-serves, I remain, yourstruly, S. HILLMAN.

LOUISVILLE, KT., Feb. 24, 1855. MR. G. SOLOMONS—Dear Sir- Having satisfactorily tried a pair of Spectacles purchased of you, and finding them far superior to any I have ever used, in that they rest and strengthen the eye, whilst all others have pained, wearied, and weakened my sight, I cordially recommend them to the use of all who stand in need of them.

Bespectfully yours,
On Broadway.

JEFFERSON CO., Dec. 2, 1554.

I have used Mr. Solomons' Eye Glassfora very brief period, with decided advantage, and have no hesitation n stating that a defective vision of long standing has in stating that a detective vision by long stating the been relieved, and the organs seem to be acquiring vigor and tone. I therefore cheerfully bear testimony to their excellency and accuracy, as also to Mr. Solomons'skill as a practical Optician, and the wonderful facility with which headapts his Glasses to the various peculiarities ofvision. DANCING ACADEMY.

MONS. J.P. LASSERRERESPECTIn fully informs his friends, and the public in general, that he will open his Dancing School at the above Hall on &ATURDAY NEXT, Sept. 28th, for misses and masters, from 9 to 12 o'clock A. M., and 2 to 5 F.M. Class for gents every Monday and Wednesday evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

On account of objections from a great number of puplis heretofore, religious dimentities are removed by forming two classes.

J. P. L. thinks it unnecessary to mention all the Dances and Waltzes he will teach in his school. The great number of puplis he has taught in this city for the last ten years is the best recommendation he can offer. Notwithstanding all the Fancy Dances and Waltzes J. P. L. is acquainted with, he takes pleasure in stating that on his visit to the South he has met with his friend Fingally Drisk, from the Opera of Paris, and when here the principal Dancer of Placide's Varieties. Through his kindness J. P. L. has come in possession of the most recent Dances, viz:

Ortiza—Five-Step Waltz.

Varsovien—Hungarian Redowa.
